

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 10th November

RECEPTION:

Chase Elding and Zach Cripsey – For working really hard in our handwriting sessions this week. Both boys are trying to remember to hold their pencils correctly and are gaining greater control.

YEAR 1:

Riley Beeson – For completing all his independent work this week without any reminders.

Damien Robinson – For always trying his best in all the work he does even when he might find it tricky.

YEAR 2:

Lily Robinson – For writing an excellent independent sentence using careful sounding out.

Willow Bedford – For being a great example to all children. Willow has also shown an amazing understanding of written methods of addition.

YEAR 3:

James Harvey – For writing an excellent news report. James used lots of news report features.

Tyler Rudling – For excellent effort with phonics and reading. Tyler is making a huge conscientious effort to improve. He has impressed us all.

YEAR 4:

Ben Richards – For his perseverance. Ben will always try his very best in all subjects. Ben loves learning new things and always makes the right choices.

YEAR 5:

Logan Roberts – Mrs Musgrove has been impressed with Logan's courteous and mature demeanour in the classroom.

Leila Jones – Mrs Musgrove has been very impressed with Leila's determination, focus and concentration during lessons. Well done.

YEAR 6:

Sonny Mitchell – For explaining some of the 'trends', 'spikes' and 'dips' in the changing numbers of evacuees between 1939 and 1945.

Well done to Year for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year for winning the Reading Cup this week.
