

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 15th June

RECEPTION:

Ella Ferguson – For improving her reading skills – being able to sight read more words.

Sophia Kalogerakos – For good understanding of symmetry.

YEAR 1:

Ethan Allan, Nathan Griffiths and Lacey Woolley – For showing great progress and improvement in reading real and nonsense words during this week's assessment.

Rylan Draby – For an all-round fabulous week. Rylan has shown fabulous improvement in his reading and also had a super attitude to all his learning.

YEAR 2:

Lacey Allen – For beautiful writing in literacy when creating a setting description. Lacey used great adverbs, verbs and adjectives.

Tyler Catley – For demonstrating a great knowledge in science when discussing animals and how to categorise them.

YEAR 3:

Junior Campbell – For always being the first to listen and sit smartly in class. He always tries his best in all areas of learning.

Cassidy Barton – For becoming independent in her learning and trying to tackle things she finds tricky by herself first. She is always polite, respectful and a good friend to others. A role model pupil!

YEAR 4:

Corban Woolley – For always trying his hardest in class.

Kai King – For working hard in his writing and maths.

YEAR 5:

Charlotte Donnelly – Charlotte always gives 100% in every lesson. She is always looking for ways to improve her work and is a pleasure to teach.

Callum Brewster – Callum has made good progress when working with area this week. Keep up the good work Callum.

YEAR 6:

Natalia Prescott – Well done says Mrs Musgrove and Mr Scarrow on your wonderfully sung solo! First time in the hall with all Y5/6 - you were wonderful!!

Martins Zonnenbergs – Mr Scarrow and Mrs Musgrove would like to thank you for your impressive levels of enthusiasm that you have shown in this week's singing rehearsals.
