

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 15th December

RECEPTION:

Taya Frost – For being a fantastic angel during our Christmas production. Taya lead the other angels confidently and sang throughout.

Ella Ferguson – For remembering her lines and speaking clearly during our performance.

YEAR 1:

Kira Girling – For producing some fabulous end of term work about Mog and her Christmas Calamity. She has used finger spaces and full stops.

Paul-Junior Guerin – For trying really hard this week with his writing and letter formation. He has shown super improvement.

Molly Wright – For trying really hard to stick to the class rules. Molly is remembering to keep focussed in class and around school during this busy time of year.

Poppy Roberts – For fabulous maths work this week. Poppy really tries her very best and is very enthusiastic about her maths work. She has shown fabulous progress.

YEAR 2:

Rachel Moore – For reading with expression, enthusiasm and volume during our play. Rachel reads every day and during the performance this was clearly evident.

Aaron Calvey – For showing confidence during both performances.

Ruby Raggo – For managing her feelings well during performances and making good choices all week.

YEAR 3:

Claudia Teague – For excellent work in numeracy, multiplying by regrouping.

Cassidy Barton – For being an excellent role model. Cassidy has a brilliant attitude and always strives to do her very best.

Bailey Kenney – Bailey always shows 100% determination and effort in her school work. She is also an extremely helpful member of the class.

YEAR 4:

Kayla Oberholzer and George Reynolds – Both have worked hard and produced some very good writing describing Moz the Monster using similes and metaphors.

YEAR 5:

Carmelle Barton – Carmelle has made huge progress in her confidence in Maths this term. This has had an impact in Maths progress.

Demi Whitehead-Siddons – During shared writing this week, Demi has written a story which is full of the features we have discussed. This has resulted in a story which is not only well written but full of suspense.

Year 6:

TJ Dunn and Amy-Louise Simmons – For both working really hard in literacy and maths throughout the term making good progress. They have also been excellent prefects 'switched-on', reliable and enthusiastic!

William Pettitt – For some exceptional work in Maths throughout the term and impressive end of term results.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the attendance cup for this week.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the reading cup this week.
