

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 17th November

RECEPTION:

Joseph Moore – For always being enthusiastic and keen to learn. Joseph gives 100% in everything he does and sets a great example to the class in terms of his behaviour.

Ella Ferguson – For working hard in phonics. She can now read simple words.

YEAR 1:

Holly Collins – For fabulous writing all week. Holly's confidence is improving all the time and this is showing in all her work. She is using finger spaces and full stops.

Logan Smith – For always trying his best and just getting on with things. Logan is a great role model to his peers.

YEAR 2:

Antoni Plewa – For showing an excellent understanding during maths sessions when subtracting.

Eryk Chrapkowicz – For building up in the skills of independent working in literacy and maths.

YEAR 3:

Ruby MacKay – For the improvements in her handwriting, her enthusiasm and determination in phonics and spelling, and her excellent letter in book study showing how desperate Rectina was to escape the erupting volcano.

Kayjay King – For the excellent improvements in his handwriting and his great ideas in literacy as to how forest fires can be prevented.

A special mention to Cassidy, Bailey, Teejay and Claudia for their wonderful volcano homework.

YEAR 4:

Jakub Fugas – For his amazing attitude towards learning. In year 4 we are learning all about Italy and Jakub always goes the extra mile to research and learn more at home.

Molly Ireland – For her resilience and willpower. In the past Molly was not too keen on reading, however she knew she had to improve, so she changed her attitude towards reading and now reads most days. She has also joined Mr Scarrow's reading group for golden time. Girl power Molly!

YEAR 5:

Callum Brewster – For maintaining a harmony part accurately in a 3 part song.

Anabela Chapman – For using ambitious vocabulary in her writing.

Year 6:

Liam Brewster, Riley Campbell and George Harker – For excellent work in literacy.

Well done to Year 1 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Reading Cup this week.

Well done to Year 1 for winning the Music Cup this week.
