

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 26th January

RECEPTION:

Zac Cripsey and Chase Elding – For excellent work in phonics. Mr Atkin has been very impressed with them.

Clayton Loveday – For settling really well into our class. It's like he has always been here!

YEAR 1:

Riley Beeson – For using fabulous ideas in his own story and for the huge improvement in his handwriting!

Carly Meyer-McKoy – For producing fantastic writing this week. In addition, Carly always tries her best and gets on with things – she is always kind, helpful and polite.

Thomas Smith – For his excellent behaviour and focus on the carpet and for concentrating in his writing. He has made huge progress with his finger spaces!

YEAR 2:

Jaden Frost – Jaden's latest independent writing has demonstrated great progress. His handwriting is beautiful and he has made sure his content and punctuation are equally great.

Tom Bond – Tom's attitude to maths this week has been amazing – he even asked to do extra maths during his break time!

YEAR 3:

Lacey Hiley and Ella Carney – For working together to convert millions of metres into kilometres as an extension to our Maths lesson on length.

YEAR 4:

Chloe Cripsey – For a very good opening to her story and also for her work ethic. Chloe always works hard, gives 100% in all subjects, all her work is well presented and she is exceptionally well behaved.

James Hippisley – For a great opening paragraph. James is a hard working child who always strives to do his best.

YEAR 5:

Jamie Turvey and Logan Roberts – Both wrote a great opening paragraph to explain how seeds are dispersed. A great improvement in his handwriting too.

Year 6:

William Pettitt – For a superb paragraph explaining how seeds are dispersed by water.

Natalia Prescott – For an extremely well written paragraph about how many seeds are transported through the air.

Chloe Davies – For showing a really impressive understanding of how seeds can be transported by animals.

Well done to Year 1 for winning the attendance cup for this week.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the reading cup this week.
