

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 29th June

RECEPTION:

Macymai Bowler and Frankie Hadley – For fantastic work in maths on number bonds using numicon.

YEAR 1:

Amellia Smith – Amellia has impressed us all with her writing about an underwater story. She showed fantastic perseverance and checked and improved her work by listening to the feedback she was given.

Nathan Griffiths – Nathan has worked very hard with his reading and writing and has shown a big leap with his independent learning. All the adults are so proud of the progress he has made!

Lacey Woolley – Lacey has shown an all-round super attitude to her learning in literacy. She has improved her handwriting and produced independent sentences.

YEAR 2:

Alanna Woolley – For producing a beautiful watercolour background of an under the sea scene.

Ruby Raggo – For an amazing underwater story so far. Ruby has used some lovely vocabulary.

YEAR 3:

Marlee Garrard – For always trying her best in every subject but especially in her maths tests this week. Marlee scored an amazing 74/80! Hard work always pays off.

Cassidy Barton – For always giving 100% effort. This has been shown in her maths test this week as she has more than doubled her score since last time!

YEAR 4:

George Reynolds – For being a wonderful person who is always polite, kind and gentle. George will always try his hardest and listens to feedback in order to improve his work.

Tia-May Allan – For fabulous results in her maths tests. Tia-May was focussed and determined to do well. Well done, Tia-May!

YEAR 5:

Anabela Chapman and Jamie Turvey – This week year 5 have been writing some poetry. Anabela and Jamie haven written brilliant rhyming poems explaining why a teacher might not be able to fine some pupils! Plus both of these children are outstanding role models in terms of behaviour, attitude to work and effort. A real pleasure to teach.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the Reading Cup this week.
