

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 3rd November

RECEPTION:

Frankie Hadley – For gaining greater independence in his self-care skills.

Taya Frost – For fantastic writing about her half term holiday.

YEAR 1:

Jake Frost - For working independently and producing some fabulous maths work this week.

Laila Dawson – For a super increase in confidence in all areas of learning especially maths. This is showing in her work. Well done!

YEAR 2:

Tom Bond – For amazing work in maths when using the column method.

Kai Ainsworth – For constantly having his hand up during maths.

Ellis Kenney – For trying really hard during all lessons this week offering lots of ideas especially on Guy Fawkes.

YEAR 3:

Katie Bolton – For her perseverance in doing the best job she could, boxing up her plan in preparation for her assessed writing. Katie always tries her best at all times.

Ella Carney – For always endeavouring to do the best job she can in all subjects, listening to instructions and trying her hardest, with excellent results.

YEAR 4:

Devon Campbell and Tia May Allan – For their enthusiasm during swimming lessons. Both listen well and follow instructions to the dot. Therefore progress has been very good.

YEAR 5:

Abbie Murray – For a superb “Coldish” task. Abbie wrote some brilliant instructions which were clean, concise and well-structured.

Rebecca Woods – Rebecca returned to the “We’ll meet again” Museum with her family over the holidays. She has made a lovely folder full of facts, questions and photographs.

YEAR 6:

We’ve started some work on instruction writing. These children’s cold tasks were impressive:

Eimantas Bidlauskas – A great introduction which made Mr Scarrow want to carry on and make an omelette.

Josh Richards – Short, clear steps that were very straight forward to follow.

Maddison Wilder – Wonderfully clear, enthusiastic and entertaining writing.

Well done to the Y6 pupils who took part in the Bikeability training this week.

Well done to Years 2 and 4 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the Reading Cup this week.
