

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 2nd November

RECEPTION:

Cameron Dales and Castiel Charrie-Cresswell – For both coming back after half term with such a positive attitude and really wanting to learn!

YEAR 1:

Chase Elding – For making a super effort to read at home. This effort has shown in his writing this week.

Ella Ferguson – Ella has had a fantastic first week back. She is working really hard in Literacy with her sentence structure.

YEAR 2:

Ethan Allan – For showing an excellent understanding when subtracting using column method.

YEAR 3:

Jacob Cooper – For his growing confidence in Maths. Even though he sometimes finds Maths tricky, he now keeps trying until he is able to find the answer.

Sukie Atwell-Charlton – For completing our Maths investigation with confidence. Sukie was able to follow the method to the end. Well done!

YEAR 4:

Cassidy Barton and Jaye Bailey – Both children are role model pupils. They follow instructions and give all of their work 100% effort. They are kind to their classmates and are always polite.

YEAR 5:

Devon Campbell – For some fantastic similes to describe The Highwayman's appearance.

Emily Brown – For using semi-colons to join independent clauses.

A special mention to James Hippisley and Jakub Fugas for achieving our 1st Rock legends in TT Rockstars.

YEAR 6:

Jay De'Ath and Charlotte Donnelly - The bikeability instructors were extremely impressed with Charlotte and Jay. Jay improved immensely and Charlotte was simply superb.

Well done to Y3 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Y4 for winning the Reading Cup this week.

Well done to Y6 for winning the Music Cup this week.
