

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 26th April

RECEPTION:

Kristians Zonnenbergs – For coming back ready to learn and with so much confidence answering questions.

Dominic Lindley – For his work with doubling this week. He has been trying really hard and is able to double using items or drawings.

YEAR 1:

Lottie Smith – Lottie's target this term is handwriting. She has come back with such a positive attitude and Miss Wright can already see an improvement in her handwriting.

Tom Harvey – We introduced division at the end of last term. Unfortunately Tom was poorly and missed it. However, Miss Wright is so impressed with Tom, he has tried really hard with division and he is even writing number sentences.

YEAR 2:

Molly Wright, Tommy Smith, Oliver Edge, Deea Mihai, Amellia Smith – All of these children have gone the extra mile and completed homework in their school holidays linked to our new topic, 'Kings and Queens'.

YEAR 3:

Jaden Gibson – Jaden is a great role model for other children in the class as he is impeccably behaved, has excellent manners and always tries his best in all of his work. Keep up this attitude to learning!

Aaron Calvey and Conni Ramsell – Aaron and Conni have both written really great recounts of things they did in the Easter holidays. They both completed these actually in the Easter holidays – not at school! Well done!

YEAR 4:

Kayjay King and Karmela Specius – For good progress in all subjects. Both children have worked hard to improve their maths, reading and writing.

YEAR 5:

Tyler Elding – Tyler has really impressed Mrs Rowney this week during maths. He has used a protractor accurately and has a good understanding of parallel and perpendicular lines.

Milly Stow – Milly's attitude to school life is exceptional. She is friendly, hard working, kind and reliable. A pleasure to teach!

YEAR 6:

Hannah Marples and Roman Porter – Mr Scarrow and Mrs Musgrove are so impressed with the wonderful singing of Hannah and Roman. Hannah's solo and Roman's group singing have been glorious!

Well done to Reception class for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Reading Cup this week.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the Music Cup this week.
