

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 8th November

RECEPTION:

Benji Harvey – For his lovely handwriting describing our pumpkins this week. Benji has really worked hard and shown great improvement.

Rubie Davey – For her number stories for finding 1 more using items.

YEAR 1:

Leilan Smith – Leilan has tried exceptionally hard in his writing, remembering to use capital letters, finger spaces and a full stop. We have been writing a predication sentence.

Pippa Mason – We have been using drama to act out 'Pumpkin Soup'. Pippa has worked well in a group, leading her peers in character. She couldn't wait to show us!

YEAR 2:

Harry Johnson – For his contributions in both history and science. Harry always has his hand up and is very engaged. He shares his knowledge with the whole class.

Evelyn Illsley – For her effort with her handwriting. During sessions, she is acting on feedback instantly to resize and improve neatness of her letters.

YEAR 3:

Laila Dawson – Laila has worked incredibly hard during our maths lessons this week. She can now confidently add two 3 digit numbers (and exchange where necessary)

Nathan Griffiths – Nathan has had another fabulous week! He has worked hard and remained focussed during all lessons. Nathan has also shown a real flair for adding two 3 digit numbers mentally.

YEAR 4:

Sukie Atwell-Charlton – For a very good set of instructions on how to bake a cake. This was a cold task, so there was no input given.

Antoni Plewa – For an outstanding attitude to learning. Antoni is always engaged and ready to learn.

YEAR 5:

Tyler Rudling – For really impressing Mrs Clark and Miss Stredwick in maths as he has been completely on task and gaining confidence in putting his hand up to answer questions.

Lacey Hiley – For returning from half term engaged and ready to learn. Lacey has shown great maturity this week when tackling difficult questions.

YEAR 6:

Henry Woodhall – Henry has been very interested in our bookstudy work this week where we have been reading the poem 'The Listeners'. Henry had some great ideas when discussing the poem.

Molly Webb – For impressing Mr Scarrow with the accuracy of her multiplication when tackling problems involving 3 digits x 2 digits.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 5/5 for winning the Music Cup this week.
