

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 1st April 2022

RECEPTION:

Isla-Jean Elding – For fantastic reading. Isla-Jean can now sight read most words and read fluently.

Thea Cole – For great progress in phonics this term.

YEAR 1:

Esmay Carney and Chloe Meyer-Mckoy – For some fantastic independent writing. They both tried really hard and it shows! Well done.

YEAR 2:

Cezary Turek – Cezary has been working very hard with Miss Cook in Colourful Semantics. Cezary is more confident to build sentences orally. Well done Cezary.

Milana Tutoriute – Milana is making fantastic progress in her reading sessions. She reads with fluency and expression.

YEAR 3:

Rosie Johnson – For fantastic editing and lovely presentation after her revisions. Rosie's explanation of the water cycle was clear and well written.

Cameron Dales – For a great attitude to his learning this week. Cameron has been applying himself very well and focusing on his independent tasks.

YEAR 4:

Clayton Loveday – For being an excellent team player. Clayton works hard to be an effective listener and communicator regardless of the children he works with.

Parker Kirley – For working really hard to join up his handwriting consistently across all subjects.

YEAR 5:

Deea Mihai, Lexi Bailey, Oliver Edge and Riley Beeson – For a fantastic performance for their PSHE about the challenges they might face when moving to a new school.

YEAR 6:

Bentley Wellsbury – Bentley was able to choose values of Y for the rule 100-5y so that the result was a multiple of 10. Bentley has been brilliant at Algebra over the past couple of weeks.

Enyah Lamb – For great writing during literacy. Enyah has innovated a superb "My teacher is a monster" story.
