

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 23rd February

RECEPTION:

Emilija Zdaneviciute – For fantastic progress in reading. Emilija always tries really hard and this is paying off. Emilija can now read CVC words independently.

Poppy Batute – For working really hard with Mr Atkin in phonics. Poppy is always keen and tries her best.

YEAR 1:

Hattie Garrard and Deea Mihai – For super dancing this week. Both Hattie and Deea have worked well with partners and as a whole group. They performed their dance using repeated and rhythmic patterns.

YEAR 2:

Kai Ainsworth – For working really hard in maths this week. Kai worked out, when measuring length, how long objects were even when the ruler didn't start at 0.

Antoni Plewa – For showing a really good knowledge of his health and wellbeing by sharing his understanding of diet and exercise.

Layton Batute – Layton showed great perseverance during book study this week. He remembered the strategies taught when he didn't recognise a word. He answered the comprehension questions brilliantly too!

YEAR 3:

Evie Sargeant and Kaylee Dunn – For writing creative instructions on how to build a model raft. They included rhetorical questions, time connectives and imperative verbs.

YEAR 4:

Daniel Murray, Evie-Mae Wallace and Lottie Barnes – For super artwork inspired by the artist, Monet. Fantastic drawing, lots of detail and good brush technique to create 'Monet style' drawings.

YEAR 5:

Jay De'Ath – Jay has worked hard with reading, writing and comparing decimals.

Leila Jones – Leila always works hard in every lesson. She is also a really helpful member of our class; always looking for ways to help with jobs around the classroom.

Year 6:

Maddison Loveday and Amy-Louise Simmons – Both Maddison and Amy-Louise have been working really hard in maths. They have been able to solve some difficult problems involving ration – at first with support and then by themselves. Mr Scarrow has been very impressed by their willingness to work together and to persist even when tasks are not easy!

Well done to Year 6 for winning the attendance cup for this week.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the reading cup this week.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the tidy cup this week.
