

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 22nd June

RECEPTION:

Daniel Calvey – For becoming more independent. Daniel is now coming into school on his own and happily!

Chase Elding – Despite Chase's broken elbow he has worked really hard this week and has impressed Mr Atkin in Maths.

YEAR 1:

Damien Robinson – For trying his best and working very hard this week. Damien wrote some fabulous sentences for his story setting.

Iija Polilovs – For his reading this week. Iija is showing great progress with his reading and has been reading extra at home.

YEAR 2:

Liam McGovern – For demonstrating an excellent understanding of multiplication facts using known times tables.

Willow Bedford – For beautiful reading of The Tear Thief using lots of reading skills including inference, prediction and linking to other stories.

YEAR 3:

George Webb – For impressing Mrs Musgrove with his enthusiastic participation in their Egyptian drumming music lesson.

Evie Sargeant – Again Mrs Musgrove was impressed with how Evie participated in music being able to keep to the correct rhythm at all times.

YEAR 4:

Emily Brown – For being fully engaged in our topic at the moment! She made an excellent replica of a pyramid.

Lennon Rogan – For considerable improvement in his behaviour in class which has impacted in his writing skills and overall work produced during lessons.

YEAR 5:

Jaden Gibson and Hannah Marples – Both children have written great first drafts of their own biographies. Whilst they both have some editing to do, it is clear they have both tried to use the features we have discussed in class.

YEAR 6:

Joshua Richards and TJ Dunn – Throughout the year their behaviour has been exemplary. They are excellent representatives of Y6. Polite, calm, thoughtful and helpful.
