

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 30th November

RECEPTION:

Auguste Sibekyte – For fabulous handwriting this week when writing a caption.

Leland Woolley – For his super night and day painting.

YEAR 1:

Amani Davis – For her lovely presentation in her literacy book. She is also working hard using finger spaced in her writing.

Tom Harvey – Tom has grown in confidence. He is eager to share ideas with the class.

YEAR 2:

Ethan Allan – Mr Taylor has been extremely happy with Ethan's attitude and engagement during PE.

Damien Robinson – For demonstrating an excellent understanding in maths when dividing by 5.

YEAR 3:

Cherish Borrill – Miss Williams is really pleased with Cherish's attitude and effort. She always puts in 100% to the group. She is always focussed and is making improvements all the time.

Gabriele Milkunaite – For behaving responsibly and sensibly on our trip to the CO-OP yesterday. Gabriele was a great help in spotting Fairtrade products too.

YEAR 4:

Ella Carney – For working really hard in all areas. Ella is a kind and conscientious pupil who always strives to succeed.

Marlee Garrard – Marlee has been working really hard in maths. She has been able to solve some difficult problems involving multiplication and divisions. Mrs Sherrick has been impressed by her willingness to persist even when the tasks are tricky.

YEAR 5:

Nathanael Prescott – Mrs Musgrove is amazed by Nathanael's ability to lead a harmony group. He is very talented but extremely modest too!

Evie-Mae Wallace – Mrs Musgrove would like to congratulate Evie on her determination to succeed during keyboard club.

YEAR 6:

Lucy Collins and Jegors Polilovs – Both students have put in lots of extra work to improve their ability to add and subtract mixed numbers and fractions. The hard work is paying off.

Jamie Turvey – Jamie spoke well and wrote persuasively during our debate in topic about whether the Parthenon should be built.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Reading Cup this week.

Well done to Mrs Musgrove's Keyboard club for winning the Music Cup this week. Due to their unfailing enthusiasm and determination!
