

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 7th December

RECEPTION:

Harvey Allan – For fabulous phonics work this week. Harvey has been sorting the ‘sh’ and the ‘ch’ phonemes and reading words with them in.

Lola Loveday – For an all round fantastic attitude to learning this week. Lola has been counting and ordering numbers and made good choices in the classroom.

YEAR 1:

Zac Cripsey – Zac would sometimes find maths a little tricky, meaning he would be hesitant to start his work. However, Zac is much more confident in Maths and has shown he does know what he is doing and is very proud of his work.

Lottie Smith – For her effort and attitude towards learning, she is very hard-working and never gives up. We recently did a mini maths test and she did brilliantly.

YEAR 2:

Hattie Garrard – For writing an excellent set of instructions on ‘How to make a jam sandwich’

Carly Meyer-McKoy – Carly scored an excellent score on her reading ‘booklet’. She always works hard and it is really paying off.

YEAR 3:

Bentley Wellsbury – For always trying incredibly hard in Literacy. He comes up with creative ideas which he is always keen to share with the class.

Tyler Catley – For really improving in all areas of Literacy His handwriting has improved, he has more content in his writing, and is able to write for longer with full concentration.

YEAR 4:

Junior Campbell – For excellent listening skills. Junior has impressed his swimming coach by following instructions precisely.

Lacey Dawson – For working really hard in all lessons. Lacey is kind, helpful and always ready to lend a hand.

YEAR 5:

Chloe Cripsey – Chloe always works hard in every lesson. This has impacted on her learning, which has resulted in some great test scores this week.

Faith Robinson – Mrs Calladine has been really impressed with Faith’s attitude to learning. Mrs Rowney has also seen an increase in Faith’s confidence to ‘have a go’ during class discussions.

YEAR 6:

Martyna Przybolewska – Mr Scarrow is impressed, virtually every day, with Martyna’s determination to learn and be the best she can be. She always listens well and implements advice.

Dylan Borrill – Dylan has worked terrifically hard to improve his understanding of fractions. He asks questions, has undertaken extra work and has listened and acted on teacher feedback.

Well done to Year 2 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the Reading Cup this week.

Well done to Year 2 for winning the Music Cup this week.
