

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 15th November

RECEPTION:

Tianna Frost – For great literacy work this week on our focus story ‘Owl Babies’.

Brooklyn Addison – For brilliant progress in reading. Brooklyn can now read simple sentences.

YEAR 1:

Leland Woolley and Pandora McCourt -In art we have been studying still life through observational drawing. Leland and Pandora have tried exceptionally hard with their lines, texture and form. They went outdoors to collect a leaf and studied the detail using pencil. Good work artists!

YEAR 2:

Zac Cripsey and Amani Davis – For their literacy work on Wednesday. Both Zac and Amani wrote neat sentences and used the key words correctly in their sentences (I, me, my).

YEAR 3:

Ethan Allan – Ethan has worked hard during maths this week. He has shown real determination when tackling the tricky concept of estimating.

Carly Meyer-McKoy – Carly is a perfect role model. She consistently works hard, is helpful and polite. A real asset to our class!

YEAR 4:

Kai Ainsworth and Layton Batute – For careful listening, mature focus and application, not just in music, but whenever Mrs Musgrove teaches them. Well done!

YEAR 5:

No gold book as at a sport event.

YEAR 6:

Tyler Elding and Tia-May Allan – Both have impressed Mr Scarrow with how hard they work in our daily Maths pre-teaching lesson. Both answer lots of questions and ask questions too. This extra work is making them more independent in their class work – both are getting so much more done too as they are rarely stuck.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.
