

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 24th November

RECEPTION:

Marshall Leatherland and Zach Wyles Cook – For their work in maths on sequencing numbers.

YEAR 1:

Deea Mihai – For trying her best at everything, even if she finds things tricky, and producing her best work all of the time.

Georgia Heywood-McCarron – For good listening this week and producing some fabulous writing. She has described characters and used her own interesting vocabulary.

YEAR 2:

Lacey Allan and Pixie Woolley – For showing a good understanding in maths and contributing more during carpet times.

YEAR 3:

Evie Sargeant – For excellent research on earthquakes in preparation for an explanation unit in literacy.

Charlie Teague – For excellent research on earthquakes using the ipads.

YEAR 4:

Kayla Oberholzer and Kai King – For excellent opening and first paragraphs for their explanation texts. Good use of technical vocabulary and parenthesis.

YEAR 5:

Ellie Knight and Jegors Polilovs – For persistence with the tricky concept of multiplication

Ellie has worked hard all week on multiplying 2digit by 2digit and the hard work is paying off because she has now cracked it.

Jegors also found multiplication a challenge at the beginning of the week but he is now able to work out 3digit by 2digit.

Year 6:

Ollie Bateman and Maddy Woolley – For fantastic final paragraphs to a set of instructions. Using complex sentences.
