

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 11th October

RECEPTION:

Rayhana Bennett – For writing a super letter for Goldilocks showing lovely emergent writing.
Dylan Allan – For writing his name on his number work. Dylan practised his name on the whiteboard before he wrote it on his work.

YEAR 1:

Dominik Turek – For showing so much independence and enthusiasm in his maths learning. He is always eager for a challenge. Dominik has been comparing number sentences.
Lola Loveday – Lola is a p.e. superstar! She has been working on jumping and leaping skills and often demonstrates to the rest of the class. Well done!

YEAR 2:

Ella Ferguson – For being very conscientious this week when writing. Ella has really worked hard to self-edit and improve her writing.
Tabitha Atwell-Charlton – For working hard in Mrs Deamer's group during maths to subtract using column method even when we have to ask Mr Ten.

YEAR 3:

Lacey Woolley and Molly Wright – For working hard with Mrs Gilbert in maths. Both girls have been working on subtraction and can now subtract a one digit number from a two digit number.

YEAR 4:

Sukie Atwell-Charlton – For super maths skills.
Viktorija Zonnenberga – For working hard in every lesson.

YEAR 5:

George Webb – For impressing the Bikeability instructors. George grew in confidence over the week due to his excellent concentration and listening skills.
Karmela Specius – For showing great resilience and determination in maths, when she made errors Karmela tried and tried again to find the correct answer.

YEAR 6:

Mr Scarrow would like to congratulate Year 6 for working hard this week and last week to present their literacy work neatly.
Especially well done to Corban Woolley and Evie-Mae Wallace whose handwriting has been particularly neat.

Well done to Year 1 for winning the Attendance for this week.
