

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 18th May

RECEPTION:

The whole class – For their fantastic behaviour during our school trip to Newark Air Museum.

YEAR 1:

Anamaria Boboaca and Lexi Bailey – For super partner work and again impeccable behaviour during our trip to the Newark Air Museum. Both girls supported and worked well with their partners all day.

Tommy Smith – For asking very sensible and varied questions during our trip. Also, for huge progress in his writing this term – writing fabulous instructions for his ‘Wing Scooter’ with finger spaces!

YEAR 2:

Tom Bond – For exemplary behaviour on the trip to Newark Air Museum. Tom asked questions, showed interest and represented the school brilliantly.

Also special mentions to Jacob Cooper, Viktorija Zonnenberga, Pixie Woolley, Alanna Woolley, Rachel Moore and Antoni Plewa for making good choices all day.

YEAR 3:

James Harvey and Kayjay King – For giving an excellent performance in the class play. They were some of the first to learn their lines and spoke loudly and clearly. They are brilliant actors!

YEAR 4:

Daniel Murray – For excellent independent work in the life of Leonardo da Vinci.

Henry Woodhall – For being a lovely young man who is always ready to offer a smile, is extremely polite and kind.

YEAR 5:

Tom Hazelton – For always being willing to help in the classroom. Giving up precious time that could be spent on the playground. Thankyou Tom for all your help whilst Mrs Bird has been here.

Layla Ballam – For increased confidence in her Maths work. Layla will now put her hand up to share her answers and ideas. A big improvement since Mrs Bird has been here.

YEAR 6:

James Truscott – For a great opening to his invented story which focusses on what happened to Amelia Earhart when she disappeared whilst trying to circumnavigate the world.

All of Year 6 – For approaching their SATs so sensibly.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the Reading Cup this week.
