

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 17th January

RECEPTION:

The whole class for excellent behaviour and good listening during our trip yesterday.

YEAR 1:

Katie Pavelin – Katie has been trying exceptionally hard in her reading lessons to learn the story 'Cops and Robbers'. She is always sharing ideas to the rest of her peers and asks questions when she is unsure. Keep up the good work!

Tom Hampstead-Taylor – Tom has had an amazing week! He has stood out in maths (adding and subtracting), and in dance (offering creative ideas) and in literacy (retelling Jack and the Beanstalk). Tom has been doing extra maths at home in his special workbook and it is really showing!

YEAR 2:

Emilija Zdaneviciute – Over this week Emilija has been consistently contributing to all lessons. She's shown a great understanding of multiplication, asked key questions about Marie Curie in reading and worked in a group for various drama activities in literacy.

Alfie Sargeant – Alfie has shown a thorough understanding of multiplication this week. During our reflect section on Tuesday Alfie was able to recognise that if he knew $6 \times 5 = 30$ he knew $3 \times 5 = 15$ due to the relationship of halving the groups and the answer.

YEAR 3:

Paul-Junior Guerin – Paul-Junior is becoming more fluent when reading. He is able to use the text to answer questions and has started to change his voice to add expression to the text.

Year 3 have persevered with some tricky maths this week. They have been comparing division statements. Well done Year 3 for not giving up.

YEAR 4:

Lacey Allan, Tom Bond and Cherish Borrill – For excellent work in maths. They are working hard in all maths lessons with determination and a good learning attitude.

YEAR 5:

Sophie Pavelin, Kayjay King and Ryan Jay – All have been working incredibly hard on 4-digit by 2-digit multiplication using long multiplication. They have shown great perseverance and accuracy in their working out.

YEAR 6:

Kayla Oberholzer, Emily Brown and Nathanael Prescott - Year 6 have been looking at how Charles Dickens writes descriptions of his characters such as Scrooge in a Christmas Carol. The children used the toolkit we made to write descriptions of Mr Fezzwig (from a Christmas Carol) and Miss Trunchbull (from Matilda). Kayla, Nathanael and Emily wrote particularly fine descriptions.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.
