

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 21st September

YEAR 1:

Evelyn Illsley – For trying really hard with her writing this week. She has particularly impressed Miss Wright and Miss Cook with her poster showing how we should look after our world.

Antonia Garrard – For a fantastic week. Antonia tries her best in everything she does. She amazed Miss Wright and Miss Cook with her independent work this week.

Lena Kolad – For amazing work in literacy on Thursday. The class have created a new story. Lena created a story map and could retell the story.

YEAR 2:

Damien Robinson – For showing some excellent sounding out skills when writing a story opening.

Lewis Kenny – For trying really hard to concentrate this week, knowing when he needs support with this and asking for help. He has had his hand up non-stop during all lessons!

YEAR 3:

Tom Bond – Tom has given 100% effort in Maths and Literacy this week and has produced some excellent work by trying to be more independent.

Sukie Atwell-Charlton – For fantastic Literacy so far this term! Sukie's work is always beautifully presented and she follows what she is required to do to the letter.

YEAR 4:

James Harvey and Claudia Teague – For super listening skills during swimming lessons. They are able to follow instructions well and be safe in the water.

YEAR 5:

Kayla Oberholzer – Kayla has written some brilliant sentences with relative clauses.

Corban Woolley – Corban has really impressed both Mrs Rowney and Mrs Wicks with his work ethic. He is always ready to listen and learn, as well as giving 100% during every lesson!

YEAR 6:

Mr Scarrow and Mrs Wicks would like to say how pleased they are with:

Ellie-Mae Knight

Hannah Marples

Carmelle Barton

Who have been doing very well in Maths this term. They have sparkled especially brightly in the topic of multiplication where they are happily multiplying TUxHTU.

Well done to Reception for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.
