

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 16th March

RECEPTION:

Sanza Parker – For working really hard in phonics sessions. Sanza always tries her best and is making great progress as she can now read CVC words.

Marshall Leatherland – For fantastic work on character speech for the ‘Three Billy Goat Gruff’ story.

Macymai Bowler – For excellent progress in phonics. Macymai did brilliantly in her latest phonics assessment.

YEAR 1:

Kira Girling – For working on her presentation of work this week. Kira has also improved her handwriting during Literacy.

Loretta Kalogerakos – For working hard in all areas. Loretta always tried her best and has produced fabulous writing and completed tricky Maths challenges this week.

YEAR 2:

Oliver Hurley – For fantastic work on Purple Mash, creating his own fairytale and following instructions well.

Ellis Kenney – For having a good week regarding his behaviour. Ellis has made good choices in the classroom and at break times.

YEAR 3:

Megan Wright and Eljay Miller – For both working incredibly hard on their independent Literacy work this week. Their work is always presented beautifully and is always of a high standard. Not only this but they also ask for advice on how to improve their work and put any comments into place.

YEAR 4:

Bella Hadley – For working really hard in all areas. Bella is growing in confidence in Maths and can work independently at times.

Jakub Fugas – For his outstanding test results. In Maths he got 93/95 and in Reading 37/40 marks.

YEAR 5:

Abbie Murray – For working extra hard and doing additional work at home on push/pull factors related to the Geography topic.

Callum Brewster – For always persevering with his contributions in Numeracy even though sometimes he finds it tricky. Well done Callum.

YEAR 6:

Soraya Garrard and Eimantas Bidlauskas – For being stars of the day when Mr Scarrow was out on a course. They worked brilliantly all day together and the supply teacher, Mrs Brien, was extremely impressed.

Maison Leatherland – For showing a really good grasp of the Year 6 book study text on ‘Kensuke’s Kingdom’. He is always able to offer interesting and perceptive answers.

Liam Brewster – For working tremendously hard in Reading with Mrs Oberholzer. Liam has shown real progress this term.

Well done to Year 1 for winning the attendance cup for this week.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the reading cup this week.
