

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 11th January

RECEPTION:

Harvey Allan – For super independent work this week. Harvey has enjoyed measuring using cubes and compared the lengths of items.

Leland Woolley – For his reading. Leland has worked really hard at blending and is beginning to read the words in his books.

YEAR 1:

Amani Davis – Amani has had a fantastic first week. She has really impressed Miss Wright with her enthusiasm in Literacy. She thinks of amazing ideas, especially ones to catch the alien!

Taya Frost – Taya is a very polite and kind member of the class. She goes above and beyond to help her friends.

YEAR 2:

Molly Wright and Paul-Junior Guerin – Both of these children have returned after Christmas with a much improved attitude to learning. Keep it up!

YEAR 3:

Jacob Cooper and Tom Bond – Both boys have come back to school with much improved attitudes to learning. They have been trying particularly hard in Maths and not giving up when they find things tricky.

Kai Ainsworth and Cherish Borrill – For working together really well as a team to work out division sums with no support.

YEAR 4:

Junior Campbell – For an outstanding improvement in his swimming skills. He moved up to the next group on the very first day back at swimming. His swimming coach was amazed by his new moves.

Paige Robinson – Paige has been trying extremely hard in all subjects. Even when it is something tricky, she will keep going. A really important skill to have in life.

YEAR 5:

Tia-May Allan – Tia has really impressed Mrs Rowney with her work on time this week. She is able to convert time between 12 and 24 hour clocks and read time tables.

Jakub Fugas – Jakub continually surprises me with his general knowledge. This week he has shared amazing facts about our space topic plus our art topic of the life and work of Van Gogh.

YEAR 6:

Jaden Gibson – For a really enthusiastic start to the term. Jaden has really hit the ground running working very hard right from the off!

Demi Whitehead-Siddons – Demi has been working really thoughtfully producing interesting work in all areas of the curriculum. Her attitude has been so positive and her work so neat.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the Reading Cup this week.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the Music Cup this week.
