

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 15th March

RECEPTION:

Pandora McCourt – For retelling our story ‘The Rainbow Fish’ this week using our story map and for her enthusiasm and hard work during maths with subtracting.

Carter Ingamells – For his creative work this week. He has been inspired by our ‘Under the Sea’ topic both at school and at home and produced some lovely work.

YEAR 1:

Chase Elding – For trying really hard in Literacy and Phonics. Chase is becoming more independent and takes pride in his work.

Antonia Garrard – For writing a very descriptive diary entry.

YEAR 2:

Harry Osborn – For showing an excellent understanding of totalling amounts of money. Harry has worked really hard in Mrs Deamer’s assembly group.

Rylan Draby – For working really hard this week to follow our rules and show a positive attitude to learning.

YEAR 3:

Lyra Gray – For her excellent behaviour in P.E. Lyra always listens carefully to instructions, tries her best and goes the extra mile by offering to tidy away equipment. Mr Johnson was very impressed!

Aaron Calvey – For persevering with fractions in maths. Aaron has continued to try hard even when he has made mistakes or become confused, he has not given up!

YEAR 4:

George Webb and Jaye Bailey – For fantastic work in their maths this week working really hard on decimals.

YEAR 5:

Leland Garrard – For using our model text ‘Alien Landing’ to create an animation on Purple Mash at home.

Nathanael Prescott – Nathanael has written a superb description of a jungle setting.

YEAR 6:

Callum Brewster – For writing a great description of a jungle setting. Callum has used powerful adjectives and shown how the time of day and the weather can create an interesting atmosphere.

Ellie-Mae Knight – Ellie has had a great couple of weeks. She has worked enthusiastically in reading, writing and maths and often puts her hand up to answer questions.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 1 for winning the Reading Cup this week.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Music Cup this week.
