

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 20th September

RECEPTION:

Milana McCourt – For always giving 100% in everything she does. Milana is enthusiastic and ready to learn at all times.

Dylan Allan – For fantastic work in maths. We have been focussing on the number 4. Dylan is able to confidently show 4 using different objects on a 5 frame.

YEAR 1:

Sophie Harris – In literacy Sophie has put all of her energy into retelling the story of ‘The Three Little Pigs’. She is a great role model to her class.

Kristians Zonnenbergs – Kristians has contributed lots of fantastic ideas during class learning. He has such an imagination!

YEAR 2:

Joseph Moore – Joseph has been mentioned to Mrs Deamer several times this week by various different adults as he is always helpful, well-mannered and hard working.

Zac Cripsey – Zac has worked really hard this week in maths. He has shown a good understanding of number sequences and counting in steps of 2,5,10 and 3.

YEAR 3:

Molly Wright – Molly has impressed both Mrs Rowney and Mrs Mason during poetry lessons. Molly was able to explain what punctuation is needed at the end of each line and why the word and is needed between the last two items on a list.

Also Miss Williams would like to say well done to Molly for her positive attitude and choices at breakfast club.

YEAR 4:

Rachel Moore – For working incredibly hard in all lessons. Rachel is a real asset to the class; polite, kind and responsible.

Maks Fugas – Maks is another hard working member of the class. He loves learning and is always very keen on improving his work. He always listens to feedback and is able to edit his work accordingly.

YEAR 5:

The whole class - For excellent teamwork in creating documentary style videos using imovie, about evacuation stories in WW2. Miss Stredwick couldn't choose one pair as they all worked so hard! We can't wait to finish them next week.

YEAR 6:

Bella Hadley and Emily Brown – Both Bella and Emily have written very strong openings to our version of ‘The Little Ships’. Bella has made some very effective vocabulary choices and Emily has skilfully shown how her main character is feeling.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Attendance for this week.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Reading Cup this week.
