

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 18th January

RECEPTION:

Dominik Turek – For his improved confidence and enthusiasm to learn particularly during maths activities. Dominik completes his work and always wants more maths work to do! He has been adding and taking away this week.

Leilan Smith – For his enthusiasm in all his work Leilan is always willing to have a go at new activities and works hard until he succeeds. He is showing very good progress with his reading words because of his hard work.

YEAR 1:

Chase Elding – For trying really hard with his phonics. It is clear how much effort he puts in because there has been a huge improvement in his reading and writing.

Clayton Loveday – For his fantastic maths work. We have been learning about shapes and Clayton has been very enthusiastic. He will recognise 3-D shapes in the classroom and is eager to share what he has found.

YEAR 2:

Loretta Kalogerakos – For consistently being a role model. Loretta is always ready to learn and tries her best.

Ilija Polilovs – Ilija is making great progress in Mrs Mason's reading group. He tries hard and works well with his learning partner.

YEAR 3:

Alanna Woolley, Rachel Moore and Conni Ramsell – For creating really interesting leaflets in Geography about Volcanoes.

YEAR 4:

Evie Sargeant – For excellent writing. Evie has produced outstanding innovated texts this week. Fabulous use of language.

Megan Wright – For excellent maths skills. Megan has grasped the concepts of multiplication and division of three-digit numbers and could easily be extended to four-digit numbers.

YEAR 5:

Lennon Rogan – Lennon has shown a fantastic understanding of fractions this week. He is able to use correct vocabulary to describe fractions, convert mixed number fractions and put them in their simplest form. On top of this he is always enthusiastic and ready to learn. A real pleasure to teach.

James Hippisley – James has been working hard to improve his handwriting. Well done James – keep it up!

YEAR 6:

Thomas Hazelton – Tom has 'wowed' the whole class with his homemade Dalek!

Jay De'Ath – Jay has written a very clear introduction to his discussion and has been a real star during literacy this term.

Well done to Year 4 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Reading Cup this week.

Well done to Year 2 for winning the Music Cup this week.
