

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 17th May

RECEPTION:

Cameron Dales – For super handwriting this week and being a fabulous scientist predicting which things float or sink.

Tom Hampstead-Taylor – For trying so hard with recognising and organising numbers as well as his writing about his dragon egg. Keep up the good work!

YEAR 1:

Tabitha Atwell-Charlton and Emilija Zdaneviciute – For their overall attitude and enthusiasm towards learning. They have worked especially hard in Maths this week. They are becoming very confident when counting to 100.

YEAR 2:

Phoebe Collins and Paul-Junior Guerin – Both Phoebe and Paul-Junior have shown a huge improvement in Maths over this year. They have both grown in confidence massively and are now attempting tricky questions independently.

YEAR 3:

Zoe Harris – For trying incredibly hard with her handwriting as it is something she has found tricky.

Tyler Catley – For persevering in all he does. Keep it up for going into Year 4.

YEAR 4:

Megan Wright, Kaylee-May Dunn and Eljay Miller – For outstanding writing and discussion text. Also for impeccable presentation of this work.

YEAR 5:

Emelia Fixter – Following Monday's science lesson, Emelia went home and continued her research on one of the scientists she had been learning about – Marie Curie.

Jakub Fugas and Daniel Murray – Both Jakub and Daniel have shown a real 'thirst' for learning this year. This was apparent again this week during science. They are both very knowledgeable but always strive to learn more.

Tia-May Allan – Tia has worked incredibly hard during her swimming lessons. This has now resulted in her moving up groups. Well done Tia.

YEAR 6:

Mr Scarrow and all of the staff would like to say a big well done to all of Year 6 who worked so hard leading up to and during this week's SATs. We are proud of you all; you approached the tests in a mature way

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 6 for winning the Music Cup this week.

Well done to Reception class for winning the Reading Cup this week.
