

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 14th June

RECEPTION:

Emily Bond – For her enthusiasm with our literacy story and creating her own story map about her minibeast.

Tom Hampstead-Taylor – For the boat he created with his grandad when he went home early on Tuesday. His grandad's farm was flooded and they made the boat together.

Dominik Turek – For his independent work with number bonds to 10.

YEAR 1:

Ella Ferguson – For writing a brilliant riddle in literacy. She has amazing imagination and creativity that she always applies to her writing.

YEAR 2:

Lewis Kenny – For making an extra effort to improve his handwriting. The difference between his handwriting now and his handwriting in September is outstanding.

Oliver Edge – For producing an excellent piece of African Tribal Art. He has taken his time and produced a really detailed piece of art.

YEAR 3:

Oliver Hurley – For always giving 100% effort in all of his work and having a great attitude to learning. Miss Stredwick was particularly impressed with his work on personification.

Kai Ainsworth – For a changed attitude in class! He always tries hard now, even if he finds the work difficult. He perseveres with a positive attitude and a happy face. A great effort to change, well done!

YEAR 4:

Jacob Wilder and Teejay Smith – For being such polite and hard working young men. They are both impeccably behaved and sensible at all times. True role models to their peers.

YEAR 5:

Mollie Webb – Mollie has produced some fantastic art work using the work of Victorian artist William Morris.

YEAR 6:

The children are all working very hard to learn their acting lines and singing lines.

Jaden Gibson and Sam Smith – Both children have not only learnt a large number of lines but have really been acting superbly.

A special mention to the children who attended the Cricket tournament. They showed great sportsmanship towards other schools. They supported each other also by cheering and offering great advice. Well done to everyone.

Well done to Year 5 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.

Well done to Year 5 class for winning the Reading Cup this week.
