

GOLD BOOK WINNERS – Friday 6th December

RECEPTION:

Charlie Johnson – Charlie has made a real effort with singing this week for our nativity.

Elli-Mai Smith – Elli wrote a fantastic Christmas list.

YEAR 1:

Rosie Parish – Rosie's independent writing in Literacy is superb! She innovated her own story of pumpkin soup using new vocabulary, capital letters and full stops. She has really improved her handwriting. Well done!

Auguste Sibekyte – Auguste is really showing independence when solving number problems – this week she has been solving two-step problems up to 20, which can be really tricky. Keep trying your best, we're very proud!

YEAR 2:

Ella Ferguson – Ella has made significant improvements over this term across all areas. In our 'booklets' we have completed this week, Ella's scores have risen greatly – particularly in reading.

Macymai Bowler – This week Macymai has tried really hard in all areas of work. She has also had more confidence to put her hand up during whole class teaching time.

YEAR 3:

Anamaria Boboaca – Ana has really impressed Mrs Rowney this week with her writing. She has shown the character of the boys and the puppies with some lovely similes.

Lexi Bailey – Lexi always gives 100% in every lesson. She is hard working and focussed. Keep it up Lexi!

YEAR 4:

Cherish Borrill – For superb concentration and willingness to exceed in her reading test. Amazing results Cherish! Mrs Sherrick is very proud of you.

YEAR 5:

George Webb – For showing resilience this week during tests, he tried his hardest throughout even when he found something tricky.

Alesha Kenny – For beginning to grow in confidence. Alesha now puts her hand up in class to answer questions and join in discussions. Miss Stredwick is sure this confidence will assist her in playground leader duties.

YEAR 6:

Josh McNulty – Mr Scarrow would like to say that Josh has been consistently one of his hardest working mathematicians – in lessons, pre-teaching sessions and in maths club! Well done.

Lottie Barnes – Lottie always makes great use of reading time. She is an avid reader and is always at the heart of our book talk. Mr Scarrow would also like to thank Lottie for recommending the book 'Cogheart' – it was excellent!

Well done to Year 5 for winning the Attendance Ted for this week.
